ENROLLMENT AGREEMENT

Anna’s House is offering a ten-week summer camp program for students between three and eleven years of age. Summer camp will be split into groups, which will be dependent on the number of campers signed up for each week. The programs will be designed around a weekly theme that provides focus and direction. Each themed session will include a balanced variety of indoor and outdoor games, arts and crafts, and walking each week! Please be aware this program is organized as an active camp experience, taught and guided by trained Anna’s House staff. Children will spend a good portion of time outside and will get wet and dirty every day. Appropriate clothing and footwear are essential. PLEASE LABEL ALL YOUR CHILDREN’S THINGS 😊

Parents are responsible for the following:

- *Providing a nutritious lunch and snack for their child (ren) daily. * Light jacket or hooded sweatshirt
- 2 snacks will be needed if staying beyond 12:30 PM. * Bathing suit
- *Applying sunscreen BEFORE drop off at camp * Towel
- *A resting mat and cover for quiet time each afternoon * A canvas bag that will hold towel, swim suit, & water shoes
- *A change of clothes (or two)
- * Extra pair of footwear that can get wet * Copy of Birth Certificate and a recent physical if not currently on file at ANNA’S HOUSE

In signing below, parent(s) authorize Anna’s House and its staff to administer medical care in the event of an emergency. Children with recurrent vomiting, diarrhea, or a fever of 100 degrees will not be permitted to attend camp and parent(s) understand they must come promptly to pick up their child if notified that their child is sick or injured. If a child requires an Epipen or other emergency medication, parents understand they must provide the appropriate medication authorization form signed by both the parent and the child’s physician (forms available in the office). Parent(s) agree not to hold Anna’s House, or any of their employees responsible in case of an accident or incident involving their child. Anna’s House does not discriminate in its enrollment or hiring practices in regard to race, religion, gender, or nationality. The school is non-denominational and its policy encourages diversity and internationalism as well as social and ecological awareness and stewardship.

The parent(s)/guardians authorize Anna’s House and its staff to obtain immediate medical care if any emergency occurs when the parent(s)/guardians cannot be located immediately.
